CAUGHT PASSING BAD BILLS.

GOULD HASN'T BOUGHT IT.

Two Bills in Custody Said to Belong to the Bogus Silver Certificate Gang.

Capt. Schultz's men are confident they have run down some members of the gang of Italian counterfeiters who have been flooding the city with bogus silver certificates.

At midnight two men entered a store kept by Susan Leach at 263 Stanton street and purchased two cigars, offering in payment a five-dollar silver certificate.

Mrs. Leach suspected that the bill was bad and called in Detectives Donegan, who arrested the strangers and took them to the Union Market station-house.

The men gave their names as Antonio Buchanon and Daniel Jerome. They were locked up and a report of the matter was made to Inspector Williams at Police Headquarters this morning.

A Mother Feuds for Griefs.

A genuine alarm was sent to the police stations last Tuesday for pretty four-year-old Josephine Hahn, who had disappeared from her home, 40 East Ninety-second street.

The next day her body was found in the water at the foot of East Eighty-ninth street. On being summoned to identify the body, the child's mother fainted and was borne an unconscious condition to her home.

Spreckles' Experiments at Pittsburgh.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.—Mr. Claus Spreckles has refused a small quantity of sugar by his new direct connecting process. Experiments are being carried on, and if successful, as it is thought they will be, there will be fifty centrifugal machines built in this city.
